Europe Houses' missions consist in raising awareness, informing and educating citizens on the history of the European integration. Europe Houses exist all over France and Europe. Their main purposes are to bring European institutions and citizens closer.

The Maisons de l'Europe are a very important network :

- 28 all over the French territory
- a European network EUNET (European Network for Education and Training e.V)

Since its creation in 2001, the Maison de l'Europe des Yvelines has led more and more actions towards the citizens. Its main objective is: raising awareness, informing and educating the population on this important issue: the history of European integration. La Maison de l'Europe des Yvelines organizes debates within the local community which contributes to the development of the European debate and to a better knowledge of the European institutions.

Activities:

- Free access to European documentation
- Information Desk for OFAJ (French and German Youth Agency)
- European Youth in Action Programme
- Organization and animation of European debates at the institutional, economical and cultural level
- Coordination of programmes of mobility for young people in Europe
- Annual session of the French German Polish Youth Parliament
- Organization of a Café Europe once a month on issues linked to the news
- Participation in different commissions to select youth projects at local and regional levels
- Intervention in various European events in the local community (European Market, Youth and Sport Day, forums...)
- Support to schools' projects

La Maison de l'Europe des Yvelines is a place of listening, meeting and exchange on all questions about Europe.
